

Billy Joe McGuffre

Now, Billy Joe McGuffrey was a really clumsy kid.
On the first day of first grade
I'll tell you what he did.
He tripped over a pencil box, flew up in the air,
landed on a kangaroo who pulled out all his hair!
He needed first aid in the first grade,
first aid in the first grade,
first aid in the first grade.
You could buy a zoo with all the doctor bills he paid.

Now, Billy Joe McGuffrey was a really clumsy kid.
On the second day of second grade
I'll tell you what he did.
He slipped on a banana peel, flew up in the sky,
landed on a chimpanzee who poked him in the eye!
He needed first aid in the second grade,
first aid in the second grade,
first aid in the second grade.
You could buy a zoo with all the doctor bills he paid.

Now, Billy Joe McGuffrey was a really clumsy kid.
On the third day of third grade
I'll tell you what he did.
He fell out of a fishing boat, splashed into the sea,
landed on a moray eel who bit him on the knee!
He needed first aid in the third grade,
first aid in the third grade,
first aid in the third grade.
You could buy a zoo with all the doctor bills he paid.

Now, Billy Joe McGuffrey was a really clumsy kid.
On the fourth day of fourth grade
I'll tell you what he did.
He went out on a tad-pole hunt,
slipped into a creek,
landed on a large-mouth bass
who bit him on the cheek !
He needed first aid in the fourth grade,
first aid in the fourth grade,
first aid in the fourth grade.
You could buy a zoo with all the doctor bills he paid.

Now, Billy Joe McGuffrey was a really clumsy kid.
On the fifth day of fifth grade
I'll tell you what he did.
He went into a garden shop looking for a rose, sniffed the baby's breath and got a bee caught up his nose!
He needed first aid in the fifth grade,
First aid in the fifth grade,
First aid in the fifth grade.
You could buy a zoo with all the doctor bills he paid.

Now, Billy Joe McGuffrey was a really clumsy kid.
On the sixth day of sixth grade

I'll tell you what he did.
He went out on a field trip the first one of the year,
backed into a saber-tooth and
pierced both of his ears!
He needed first aid in the sixth grade,
first aid in the sixth grade,
first aid in the sixth grade.
You could buy a zoo with all the doctor bills he paid.

Now, Billy Joe McGuffrey was a really clumsy kid.
On the seventh day of seventh grade
I'll tell you what he did.
He tried out for the talent show
to show how well he sung Cracked a grin, a wasp flew in and stung him on the tongue !
He needed first aid in the seventh grade,
first aid in the seventh grade,

You could buy a zoo with all the doctor bills he paid.

He swerved to miss an alley cat

while taking driver's ed, ran into a tree and
bumped the dashboard with his head!
He needed first aid in the eleventh grade,
