

Today I Took My Diapers Off

Today I took my diapers off;
I do not need them now.
Just like grown ups use the potty,
I am learning how.

There's no more pins and sticky tapes
And waiting to be changed.
Now if you will excuse me please,
I have to go again.

I have a little potty of my very own;
It has a yellow ducky to hold on to.
It's just the perfect size
for someone big like me,
'Tho it might be just a little small for you.

Today I took my diapers off;
I've never felt so free.
My pants are not puffed out in back;
What you see is me.

I have some bright new underwear
Just like the big kids get!
Before I go I pull them down
So I won't get them wet.

I have a little potty of my very own;
It has a yellow ducky to hold on to.
It's just the perfect size for someone big like me,
'Though it might be just a little small for you.

Today I took my diapers off
And put them in a drawer.
I waved goodbye to them because
I won't need them anymore.
